The ch or tch rule

Right after one short vowel letter write tch: catch, fetch, itch, notch, hutch

After a consonant or a vowel team write ch: lunch, bench, peach, coach

At the start of a word

always ch: chip, chin

Rule breakers

much, such, rich, which (learn them by heart)

Ch or tch? Fill it in.

Read the start, say the whole word, then write ch or tch. Is there one short vowel right before the sound? Then it's tch.
