OO word list

Start with the short words. Add the longer ones as your child reads more.

Moon or book? Where the oo sits helps

At the end of a word, oo says moon: zoo, too, igloo.

Before k, oo says book: book, look, cook. (Spook is the odd one out.)

Before d, it can go either way: food says moon. Good and wood say book. Try both.

Anywhere else, try moon first. If it doesn't sound right, try book.

Say it your way roof, room, root, broom, hoop: in parts of the US people say these with the book sound. Both are fine. They are left out of the activities in this pack.

Tricky look-alikes: in blood and flood, the oo says the u in cup. In door and floor, the r changes the sound. Learn these four by heart.
